KNOWN DEAD IS SIXTY-ONE

Unconfirmed Report From Sunnyside, a Small Town on the Lower Brazos River, Says Fifty Persons Have Been Drowned and That About Five Hundred Others Are Marooned.++++++ Houston, Tex., Dec. 8.—Late dispatches increased the number of known dead in the Texas floods to sixty-one, with the possibility that a heavy death toll by drowning reported at Sunnyside, but not confirmed, would increase this number.++++++ Houston, Tex., Dec. 8.—Fifty persons, mostly negroes, are reported to have been drowned at Sunnyside, a small town on the Lower Brazos river.
The message said that between 400 and 500 persons are marooned on a small mound at San Felipe and are in great danger. A special train loaded with motorbuses was dispatched from Houston to rescue them.J. R. Garrett, a planter, who telephoned to Houston for assistance, reported that the entire Brazos bottom in Waller county was flooded, that a number of houses had floated away and that refugees were clinging to trees and houseposts.Sunnyside is eight miles north of Brookshire. Mr. Garrett said residents of the lowlands were warned of the approaching flood, but many refused to leave their homes.Andrew Buchanan and C. D. Deman, plantation owners, are among those reported missing.

Ward, who rose from a day laborer to the presidency of the mail order house which bears his name, died at his residence at Highland Park. The multimillionaire was seventy years old.Death resulted from a complication of diseases which developed after two falls. About two years ago Mr.
Ward slipped on the running board of an automobile at Pasadena, Cal., and broke an arm and shoulder blade.These injuries confined him largely to his home. Six weeks ago Mr. Ward fell in his home and fractured his right hip. The kidneys were injured and pneumonia developed.Born at Chatham, N. J., Feb. 17, 1843, Mr. Ward advanced himself by his own endeavors until at his death his wealth is reliably estimated at

Illness.St. Louis, Dec. 8.—Miss Phoebe Cousins, the first woman lawyer in the United States and the only woman who ever served as deputy United States marshal, died here.Miss Cousins was seventy-two years old and death came as the culmination of a long illness, which she had suffered in poverty in a squalid room in a crowded section of St. Louis. Appeals for assistance recently had been made by friends in her behalf. Frequently in recent years she had sought aid from the federal government and from breweries, whose cause she had championed in many campaigns against prohibitory legislation.

Michigan Strike Zone.

SIX SUSPECTS UNDER ARREST

Two Brothers and Boarding House Proprietor Are Shot to Death With Rifles While Sleeping and Woman in an Adjoining Apartment Is Seriously Wounded.Calumet, Mich., Dec. 8.—Arthur and Harry James, brothers, were killed, Thomas Dally died from his wounds and Mary Nicholson was injured seriously by rifle bullets fired in the apartment house in which they lived.
The James brothers came here from Toronto, Can., and obtained employment in the Copper Range Consolidated mine, whose men are among those on strike. They took up their abode with Dally, who was a miner and a boarding house keeper.Miss Nicholson is the daughter of William Nicholson, who occupied the other side of the apartment house in which Dally lived.All of the victims were in bed when shot. Three kinds of rifle bullets were imbedded in the walls of the house. Ten or twelve shots were fired and the difference in style of bullets led to the belief that at least three men did the shooting.Six suspects are under arrest.
The murders aroused great indignation through the strike zone and big meetings of citizens were held in both cities. Speakers condemned some of the nonresident, paid agitators for the series of crimes, of which the murders were the latest. Both meetings adopted resolutions demanding that the sheriff use all means to rid the city of "murder inciting mercenaries."The citizens paraded the streets in spite of the intense cold.The strikers also held meetings and speakers exhorted the men to stick to the Western Federation of Miners and to be prepared to defend their homes from raids from officers.All mines in the district will be closed Wednesday to enable workmen to attend law and order meetings at Houghton and Calumet.

a wheelbarrow full of cinders when the wire broke as he was passing

Zdnok was born in Russia. He left

House Committee Will Submit Lobby
Report Tuesday.Washington, Dec. 8.—The house committee which has been investigating the charges of lobbying at the Capitol decided upon a report which will make no recommendations to the house, though it will comment severely upon some of the facts disclosed during the months of inquiry following the published accusations of M.
M. Muhall, former agent of the National Association of Manufacturers.Representative McDonald of Michigan, the Progressive member of the committee, will file a dissenting report, though he agrees in the main with the statement of facts set forth by the majority of the committee.
The reports will be read to the house Tuesday.Chairman Garrett said that a tentative draft of a report submitted by him to the committee had been "torn
to pieces and changed generally."WINS HER FREEDOM
BY HUNGER STRIKEPrison Authorities Again Release
Mrs. Pankhurst.London, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, who was arrested Thursday on her arrival from the United States, has been released from the Exeter jail.Mrs. Pankhurst was driven to a hotel. She appeared very weak as a result of the hunger strike she began immediately following her arrest and immediately retired in charge of a nurse. Mrs. Pankhurst is liberated on seven days' license. She intends to proceed to London at the earliest possible moment.Not anticipating the early release of their leader suffragettes gathered at the Empress theater, Earl's Court,
to protest against the imprisonment of Mrs. Pankhurst. The house was only three-quarters filled and "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, who presided, explained the empty seats by accusing the postoffice of tampering with letters containing invitation tickets.In the course of a speech, denouncing the government, she explained:
"Here and now we swear that never again will the government get Mrs.
Pankhurst. We shall organize a bodyguard which will even face battleships."

Congressional Leaders Will Confer
With President.Washington, Dec. 8.—President Wilson's views on trust legislation are to be sought this week by congressional leaders upon whom will fall the task of mapping out the antitrust program for executive action.The past week has developed a pronounced view among the Democratic members of the senate that the anti-trust acts of the present session of congress should be few and should affect only the more obviously needed reforms in the field of combination and corporation activity.

CAMPAIGN FOR PENNY POST

Advocates Insist That Letters Be Car-
Deficit Made Up by Increasing Price of Carrying Newspapers.—Wilson Dampen Many Social Aspirations.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 8.—[Special.]—If congress should adopt a constitutional amendment changing the date when congress convenes, as well as the date of inauguration, so that the term of the president and the beginning of the session of congress will follow soon after the general elections, it will be a triumph for John F. Shafroth, senator from Colorado and formerly a member of the house of representatives.More than a dozen years ago he began a fight for such changes by proposing amendments to the constitution. That was when he was a member of the house. Upon his return to congress as a senator he renewed the fight, and it may be that he will succeed.I have never thought it possible to change the constitution in this regard,
but I have seen so many things happen that I at one time never thought possible it seems likely this change in the fundamental law may come with the rest in time.

The Inauguration Date.

Most of the clamor for a change of inauguration date has been by Washington people, who wanted it to take place in more balmy weather than on the 4th of March. And that proposition always acted like a red rag upon the average congressman. "What," he would shout, "change the date of a time honored institution in order to help Washington make a show-just
to help these greedy, grasping people to get more money out of people who come to the inauguration! Do you suppose we are going to aid the business people of Washington by turning an imposing and impressive event into a mere show for their benefit?"It is now proposed to make the inauguration on the first Monday in January, which will eliminate much of
parade.

Penny Postage Insistence.

Just as congress begins its regular session and is to take up all kinds of business the advocates of one cent letter postage become more and more
and more than a dozen bills for one cent postage have been introduced,
and there is a prospect that an at-
upon letters in the future.Of course there is going to be a great deal of argument, and it will be pointed out that that movement is almost wholly in the interest of big business and those who use much letter mail.
At the same time it is rather catching with the people, this idea of getting stamps for half what they have been paying. Coupled with the demand for one cent letter postage is the assertion that an increase on the rates by newspapers and periodicals will make up the deficit.

Shutting Out an Industry.

If a hard hearted congress should persist in putting in the new currency law a provision shutting out treasury employees from employment in banks it will cut out something that has grown into an industry. The United States treasury has been a manufacturing place for bank employees. Let a man have a job as secretary and particularly assistant secretary in the treasury and he soon graduates into a mighty big banking job in New York.
This congressional action is based on the view that these officials get in
always able to supply the banks with valuable information.

senate Senator Chamberlain of Oregon has caused consternation among his colleagues by saying what he thinks. And so when he said to a table full of dining diplomats that Columbia ought to receive justice for the taking of Panama from her he shocked the whole crowd, including the ambassadors and John Barrett. It was awful to inject into a diplomatic gathering real sentiments when such occasions are reserved for "hands across the sea," "let us be brothers" and such other twaddle.

Social Heartburns.

The social season has not really begun, and yet the heartburns are many.
There is trouble over precedence, over calling, over many things that only
And then there is the manner in which the Wilsons behave—I mean by that their disregard of many conventions.
The Wilsons do not make any provision for the class of people who have settled down in Washington because it affords them an opportunity to gratify their social aspirations. They came here to get into the swim and
administration does not help along their game.Jealousy.
Jealousy will not listen to reason because it doesn't believe there is such a thing.—Chicago News.

Opera in New York.New York, Dec. 8.—A permanent injunction in favor of the Metropolitan Opera company, restraining Oscar Hammerstein from producing grand opera in New York or environs was granted by Justice Pendergast of the supreme court.Arthur Hammerstein, son of the impresario, is included within the scope of injunction. It is believed an appeal
IS STILL IN MINESearchers Find Traces of Slayer of Six Men.Bingham, Utah, Dec. 8.—Sticks of dynamite were hurled into a tunnel in the Utah-Apex mine in which Ralph Lopez, the slayer of six men, may
weapon behind him.Tons of earth and rock choke the tunnel and work will be begun clear-
Mexican desperado finally was trapped.
Lopez was traced into the tunnel by imprints, showing that he apparently had crawled on his hands and knees, dragging his rifle. Members of the posse followed the tracks until they led into the tunnel. There the searchers, knowing the deadly aim of the Mexican, balked.Aside from this one possibility that the desperado lay in the room the sheriff and his deputies found nothing to dispel the belief that he had escaped before the gases which were forced into the mine last week to as-phyxiate him became overpowering.
The search, however, was pursued vigorously and will continue until every part of the mine has been explored.The pursuit of Lopez began on Nov.
21, when he killed a Mexican miner.
Since then he has killed the chief of

WOMEN BREAKING UP HOMES

Mothers-in-Law Six Times More Dangerous Than Fathers-in-Law.Chicago, Dec. 8.—As a destroyer of marital happiness mothers-in-law are six times more dangerous than fathers-in-law, according to records of the court of domestic relations. Forty-six per cent of the cases brought into this court have been caused by liquor, Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court reported."In half the cases of unhappy homes brought in the domestic court the families have been reunited," said

Less Than One-Fourth Enough Men
for Seacoast Defenses.Washington, Dec. 8.—With all of the great gun batteries planned for the United States seacoast defense by the Endicott board twenty-seven years ago nearing completion the army faces a serious problem in the lack of artillery men to man the fortifications.This situation was brought to the attention of the war department in the annual report of Brigadier General E. M. Weaver, chief of coast artillery. He reported that his corps had "less than one-fourth of one relief" available for permanent duty in the batteries and the organized militia was not prepared to furnish its required quota of reserves.

Report for Eleven Months Declares Sacrifice Too Heavy Toll.New York, Dec. 8.—During the eleven months past 416 users of public highways were killed and 2,142 injured in this state by automobiles and other motor vehicles, according to a statement made by Mitchell May,
secretary of state.Mr. May said it was apparent that "there was something radically wrong both in the law and in its enforcement, for this sacrifice of human life, almost double that of last year, is too heavy a toll to pay for the ad-

Policeman and Negro Dead and Another Officer Dying.St. Charles, Mo., Dec. 8.—John Blair, a policeman, was killed and David Lamb, also a policeman, was wounded fatally by three negroes. One of the negroes, Tom Black, was killed.
The negroes were shooting craps on the street when the policemen attempted to arrest them. The negroes resisted. Black fired at Policeman Blair, killing him instantly. Then Policeman Lamb shot him dead and turned on the other two negroes, Harry and Arthur Black, his brothers. He was felled by two bullets.

Conference at Dublin Splits Over Demand for Reinstatement.Dublin, Dec. 8.—The attempt to reach a settlement of the Dublin strike, which has been in progress for fifteen weeks, has failed.A conference composed of employes and employers, assisted by English labor leaders, sat for twenty hours thrashing out every point, but split
the executive of the employers would not concede.

IN ST. PAUL STORE.St. Paul, Dec. 8.—Working within twenty feet of the street door burglars forced open the safe in the St. Paul Provision company store and rifled it of
they expected to find $1,500 in gold and currency, but this had been removed from the building by M. Kantar, manager of the store. The cash register and the safe in the store of Michaud & Kelly, to which the
not molested.

Cabinet Officer Favors Amending
Urges Practical Abolition of Free
General Reorganization of the Department's Working Basis.Washington, Dec. 8.—Reorganization of the department of agriculture is foreshadowed in Secretary Houston's first annual report presented to President Wilson. A plan to be submitted to congress in the fiscal estimates for 1916 proposes to carry out the work of the department in five or six main groups, such as research, state relations, rural organization, forest service, weather and regulation.
Such a plan, Secretary Houston believes, will promote co-ordination.Plans for redistributing the country for the enforcement of the pure food
announces his intention to ask for authority to prepare amendments to the pure food law, to improve the food supply, protect the public health and promote uniformity in food legislation.Free distribution of seeds by congressmen should be discontinued, the secretary recommends. He would conduct instead a constructive work in securing and distributing new seeds and plants.

Financial Arrangements Poor.

Conditions vary widely in the United States, says the report, because farmers do not equally need better credit arrangements and all sections are not similarly circumstanced. It contends that when all necessary allowance has been made for fundamental factors it is probably clear that the rural communities are not served as efficiently as they should be
by existing financial arrangements.The secretary believes there does not appear to be need for unique or special legislation or for legislation which shall aim to give the farmer credit on easier terms than other members of society. What is needed is the creation of conditions and machinery which shall enable him on
money at the same rates as those that prevail for other classes and for other sections.

small town on the Lower Brazos river.
with motorboats was dispatched from
phoned to Houston for assistance, reported that the entire Brazos bottom in Waller county was flooded,
to trees and house-tops.Sunnyside is eight miles north of
fused to leave their homes.Andrew Buchanan and C. D. Deman,
reported missing.

A. MONTGOMERY WARD DEAD

Chicago Man Rose From Laborer to Multimillionaire.Chicago, Dec. 8.—A. Montgomery
his wealth was reliably estimated at

FIRST WOMAN LAWYER DEAD

TWO KILLED ON A BRIDGE

Caught by Passenger Train While Trying to Avoid Freight.Indianapolis, Dec. 8.—Patrick Gorman and John Holroyd were killed and Frank Ackerman, a butcher, narrowly escaped death when caught on a Big Four railroad bridge over Eagle creek. The men were trying to get out of the way of an outbound freight and did not notice the approach of a passenger train.Ackerman escaped by throwing himself between the two tracks and clinging to the ties until the two trains had passed.The other two men attempted to reach the end of the bridge, but were crushed by the freight train about fifteen feet from their goal.

Will Submit Lobby Report to the House on Tuesday.

ing the published accusations of M.
M. Mulhall, former agent of the Na-
by the majority of the committee.The reports will be read to the
BY HUNGER STRIKEPrison Authorities Again Release
Mrs. Pankhurst.London, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Emmeline
on her arrival from the United States,
ing the government, she explained:

Wilson's views on trust legislation
cratic members of the senate that the anti-trust acts of the present session
and corporation activity.

HETCH HETCHY BILL PASSED

Supply Rights.Washington, Dec. 8.—The Raker bill giving San Francisco water supply and power rights in the Hetch Hetchy valley on the Tuolumne river, Yose-mitte National park, passed the senate by a vote of 43 to 25.The bill had passed previously the house in identical the same form and goes at once to the president for signature.CONVENING DATE

of Carrying Newspapers—Wilson's Dampen Many Social Aspirations.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

the rest in time.

auguration on the first Monday in January, which will eliminate much of

Penny Postage Insists.

deal of argument, and it will be pointed out that that movement is almost
the deficit.

law a provision shutting off treasury

ble full of dining diplomats that O-lombia ought to receive justice for the taking of Panama from her he shocked the whole crowd, including the am-
other twaddle.

their disregard of many conventions.
their game.

Jealousy.

a thing.—Chicago News.

Enjoined From Producing
Grand Opera in New York.

granted by Justice Penderton of the
pressario, is included within the scope
Mexican desperado finally was trapped.
plored.The pursuit of Lopez began on Nov.
21, when he killed a Mexican miner.

this court have been caused by injury, Chief Justice Olson of the mu-

eral E. M. Weaver, chief of coast ar-
giment" available for permanent duty in
required quota of reserves.

Recovering From Snow Blockade.

the street car lines to traffic and many men and women returned to their homes for the first time since the snow storm of last Thursday.
Railroad traffic also was improved

NEW YORK AUTOS KILL 416

Blair, a policeman, was killed and
of the negroes, Tom Black, was killed.
turned on the other two negroes, Harry and Arthur Black, his brothers.
He was felled by two bullets.

mand for Reinstatement.Dublin, Dec. 8.—The attempt to
not concede.

Ten Years' Savings Lost.

Menominee, Mich., Dec. 8.—Just after having drawn $130, his savings of ten years of labor, with which he intended to return to Italy to spend the remainder of his life, Ricardo Antipio of Manistique was robbed of his roll by two highwaymen. Two suspects are held.BURGLARS BLOW SAFE
Michael & Kelly, to which the
not molested.

lieves, will promote co-ordination.Plans for restricting the country
and plants.

Financial Arrangements Poor.

Conditions vary widely in the United States, says the report, because
contents that when all necessary al-
sections."Even though the problem of how the farmer can best sell his produce and can improve the conditions under which he can secure the necessary capital were solved there still would remain vital things to be accomplished before rural life can be made fully efficient, profitable, healthful, pleasurable and attractive, and before a larger disposition to remain on the farm develops.

Good Roads in Demand.

"Good roads are prerequisites for better marketing, for better schools and for more comfortable rural living.
Better sanitation and hygiene in the home, in the school and in the community are just as vital for the rural community as for urban," the report says.To gain information to enable the department better to serve rural women the secretary has addressed letters of inquiry to the women on 55,000 selected farms covering every county. Other surveys and studies were also conducted.As to federal aid for good roads the secretary says the federal government should deal with the state as the lowest unit, through an expert highway commissioner as its agency.
The plan should provide for maintenance as well as construction. Preference should be given to the improvement of roads over which products from the farms can be taken to the nearest railway station.

MUST NOT HARM FOREIGNERS

Specific Orders Are Issued to Mexican Regulars.Mexico City, Dec. 8.—Foreigners must not be interfered with if fighting occurs in the federal district. This injunction is contained in the general army orders issued. The orders specifically state that in the event of fighting the officers in command of the government troops must understand that the lives and property of all foreigners are to be respected; that no money or supplies are to be exacted from them and that they must be permitted to leave the scene of the fighting at any time.

time since the Civil war the enlisted strength of the navy has passed the 50,000 mark, the total number of enlisted men being 50,136. There has been a net gain in enlistments since July 1 last of 2,068. Officials said it was expected the navy in a short time would be recruited up to its maximum strength of 51,500.

Some residents of Northeast Brainerd assert that a family is receiving city aid and that their poverty is not very apparent, the assertion being made that they own a house in Brainerd and one out of town.

The Brainerd Y. M. C. A. basketball team was beaten by the Bemidji city team, the latter all college men except the captain. The score was 44 to 46. Brainerd returned a badly crippled team. The score in the first half was 16 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Swanson celebrated their silver wedding at their home at 901 South Sixth street. Many useful and pretty presents were given them, including a four-piece silver tea set. They have lived in Brainerd ever since they were married. Two of the town guests were Mrs. N. P. Peterson and children, of St. Paul.

The other day Billy Vernon and Edwin Harris Bergh entered into an animated conversation on the street and a passerby was alarmed at the volume of talk which emanated from Billy. It was a great mystery until Mr. Bergh explained that Mr. Vernon had simply gone over some of his Pinafore role and that he had it down so pat that all he needed was a cue to start right off.

Wheels and Sails.

In 1622 one of the wonders to be seen at The Hague was a wagon or a ship or a combination of both. A traveler of that time wrote: "This engine hath wheels and sails, will hold above twenty people and goes with the wind, being drawn or moved by nothing else, and will run, the wind being good, above fifteen miles an hour upon the even hard sands."

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY

Louis Nash, Past Exalted Ruler of St. Paul Lodge No. 59, Delivered Memorial Address

Past Exalted Ruler A. J. Halsted Spoke of "Our Absent Brothers"—The Musical Program

The Elks memorial services were observed at the opera house, the memorial address being delivered by Louis Nash, Past Exalted Ruler of the St. Paul lodge, No. 59.

The curtain slowly ascended and disclosed the officers of the lodge seated in a semi-circle with Mr. Nash seated in the Exalted Ruler, Fred L. Sanborn. The stage was beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers and on the back wall were gracefully draped four large American flags. On the altar reposed the Bible the flag and the Elks emblem.

Graham's orchestra played. After the opening ceremonies by the lodge, the opening ode was sung. Rev. G. Phil Sheridan gave prayer. Miss Elizabeth Armstrong sang "Adore and Be Still" by Gounod in pleasing voice.

Past Exalted Ruler A. J. Halsted spoke of "Our Absent Brothers." He said in part: "Since the organization of Brainerd Lodge, No. 615, thirteen years ago last August, twenty-four of our members have laid down their work here on earth and have gone to join the grand lodge of Elks above. But one member died in 1912, Brother James Smith. We have had no deaths during the current year, and this, I believe, is the first year since our organization, that we have not lost one or more brothers.

"Our absent brothers were human, like the rest of us, and they may have had their faults, as we all have. Where is there a perfect man? To err is human, to forgive divine. The faults of our brothers we write upon the sand, their virtues on the tablets of love and memory.

"Their work is done; they have gone from among us. As spoken by brave Horatio, 'unto every man upon this earth death cometh soon or late.' It has been so since the world began. Death is merely a transition, a transformation, as it were. As the bud opens into the beautiful flower, death is simply a stepping stone to some larger form of existence, our bodies may go back to the dust whence they came, but our souls, images of, part and parcel of the divine, return to God who gave them, not to be shelved in the limbo of retirement but to continue laboring in the divine vineyard, developing the work here begun and completing the life we believed had long found end.

"This service marks our tribute to the dead, and develops within us a glooming mood. But with all of that it will fall dismally of its proper purpose if its impression is momentary and vanishes like mist the moment we reach the outer air. In a few minutes the service will be over and we shall go to our homes, and a full year will pass before a similar gathering will be held. In the meantime let us beware lest we forget, not so much our dead (memory will scarce permit that), but rather our duty to the living.

"It matters not how cruel the past seems to have been. The present is here with its responsibilities, the future before us with all its promise. "Life's golden age is not in the past, but in the future. Sin, suffering, disappointed hopes, plans, ambitions always leave regret, but we must forget mistakes or grow melancholy.

"Look not mournfully into the past; it comes not back again. Wisely improve the present; it is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear and with a manly heart."

The quartette, Messrs Alderman and Bye and Mesdames LaBar and Elder sang "Day Break" by J. A. Parks, the voices blending beautifully.

Louis Nash was appropriately introduced by Exalted Ruler Sanborn. Mr. Nash said in part:

of its expression reflects the motives which have prompted, it and furnishes in itself a characterization of the actors who have presented it upon the stage of life.

"History and legend, romance and poetry are filled with descriptions of monuments and statues, cenotaphs and columns, commemorative of the great and illustrious of every age.

"They are forceful indicia of the minor chords of humanity's heart, and serve to indicate the ever constant advance towards higher and better ideals.

"For some unaccountable reason the newspapers have fallen into the habit of referring to the annual memorial exercises as a 'lodge of sorrow'. I desire to correct that impression at this time. We do not so regard these services; it is true they are held to commemorate the virtues of our departed brothers whose labors in this world have been completed, but who we believe have been called to a better world.

"Remembering then, only the good in them, our season of mourning passed with them to their graves, and while we recognize their absence and deplore the vacant chair, our teachings do not permit us to feel depressed whenever we recall our absent brothers. This is our Decoration Day. We come laden with the wreaths of remembrance for those of our brothers who have fallen in life's battle. Memories of famous men and brilliant deeds are recalled by celebrating their anniversaries.

"We believe the man who will stand firm and true in defense of an absent friend is worthy the respect of even an enemy. Elkdome teaches the gospel of cheerfulness and good fellowship. Our religion is that of humanity, not theology, and our creed is the exemplification of charity in its broadest sense and meaning.

"We believe in brotherhood, not as a substitute for religious faith, but as a quickening, powerful influence that binds together men and nations. We believe in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, in the religion of love and the gospel of good works. That above all sects is truth, above all nations is humanity; that all the sons of men are the sons of God.

"We sympathize with human frailties and human sufferings. We believe that a smile is better than a frown, sunshine better than clouds, that laughter is the sweetest music in the world, and life without it would be a dreary waste. We believe that we rise by raising others, and he who stoops above the fallen stands erect. We believe that life is too short to harbor ill-will against our neighbors, that honest differences of opinion should not estrange the members of the human family.

"The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is an American order; American in principle, American in its hopes and aspirations; and its patriotic teachings are ideal.

"An Elk meets trouble and difficulties with a smile, and by doing so, he knows he is in a better condition to overcome them. Every person who does a charitable act, who adds to the sum total of human happiness, who inoculates others with a germ of good cheer, is an Elk who has not yet taken our obligation. All men who do good are natural Elks.

"An Elk believes in taking the world as he finds it, and does not find fault because it is not as he thinks it should be; for he realizes that even if he were running it he might make mistakes; but he ever aims to make it brighter and better.

SALOON KEEPERS AND BARTENDERS

Hon. A. C. Rankin Extends an Invitation to Them to Attend Tonight's Services

HE SPEAKS ON TEMPERANCE

Subject Tonight at the First Baptist Church is "License and the Man Who Sells Liquor"

Tonight Hon. A. C. Rankin, the temperance lecturer, gives a special invitation to the saloon keepers and bartenders of Brainerd to hear his lecture at the First Baptist church which will be presented under the theme, "License and the Man Who Sells Liquor."

These meetings will continue this week in the First Baptist church, commencing at 7:30 with good singing and a bright service. The meetings are worth while; attend once and you will want to go again.

The united gospel temperance meeting held in the First Congregational church was a great send off for the second weeks meeting. The church was filled to its capacity and listened attentively to Mr. Rankin as he presented in a most sane and logical manner, "The Antagonism of the Saloon to the Church."

His arguments were not in a circle but to the point and convincing. The facts that there are at least 700,000 drunken men, poverty and distress, neutrality towards the church, the absence of the saloon men from the church, prayer and missionary meetings, these with many others were given in a masterly way to prove the futility of the saloon to the church. An unusual number of people signed the pledge at the close of the lecture.

DR. COURTNEY IS HONORED

By a Farewell Dinner Tendered by His Associates and Friends Upon the Completion of

HIS TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Of Active Service as Chief Surgeon for the Eastern Division of the Northern Pacific

Dr. Walter Courtney, who has completed twenty-five years of active service as chief surgeon for the Northern Pacific railroad and who has resigned effective Dec. 31st, 1913, was tendered a farewell dinner by his old hospital internes and staff of line surgeons at the Ransford hotel in this city on Saturday evening, December 6th. The occasion brought to this city on Saturday many of the old time acquaintances of the doctor, many of whom had been connected in an official capacity with the N. P. B. A., and others who had been associated in the work and who all desired to be present in order to show their appreciation of his long and faithful service in the capacity which he has occupied and to wish him God speed in his future walks of life. Probably no man in a similar line of work has gathered around him a larger number of close, personal friends, both in and out of the profession, who appreciate the high position he has attained in his chosen work than Dr. Courtney, and the medical fraternity of his own state and in various other portions of the country where he is known hold him in high esteem and consider him an authority. As a surgeon and as a private citizen the people of Brainerd admire him, and the announcement that he would not leave Brainerd when he severed his connection in an official capacity with the N. P. B. A. but would continue to make the city of his adoption his home after a continuous residence here of nearly 30 years, was received with delight by his friends and neighbors who have known him during all these years.

The farewell dinner was arranged by his professional associates scattered the length of the Northern Pacific road and while many of them were unable to be in attendance they all assisted in making the affair the brilliant success that it was and those absent expressed their sentiment in telegrams and letters read at the dinner by Dr. Coventry, of Duluth, among this number being: Dr. V. C. Vaughn, Dean Medical Department, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich. Drs. W. J. and C. H. Mayo, Rochester, Minn. Dr. S. W. Mowers, Tacoma, Wash. Dr. R. H. Beach, Glendive, Montana. Dr. R. J. Blanchard, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

These letters, besides conveying regrets evinced sincere sympathy with the occasion and expressed deep appreciation of the work performed by Dr. Courtney in connection with his quarter century service as Chief Surgeon of the Eastern Medical Division of the Northern Pacific railway.

At 8 o'clock the bidden guests assembled in the spacious dining room of the Ransford hotel and enjoyed an evening of unalloyed pleasure. Rev. G. P. Sheridan offered the invocation following which the dinner was served, the following being the

The response by Dr. Courtney was listened to with much interest by his assembled friends, and at the close he was presented with a beautiful loving cup in token of the esteem with which he is held, the cup being appropriately engraved in memory of the occasion.

The following resolution, adopted by the executive committee of the Board of Managers of the N. P. B. A. at a meeting held in St. Paul October 22, 1913, was read and Dr. Courtney was presented with an engraved copy:

Resolved, That we accept the resignation of Dr. Walter Courtney, Chief Surgeon, Eastern Division, effective December 31, 1913, and wish to express, in behalf of the officers and members of the Association, their appreciation of his long and faithful service.

That when he came to the Association on September 25, 1888, the work was in its infancy, although in operation prior to that time since September, 1882, and that while the financial and numerical increase is due in a large measure to the growth of the railway, yet it is largely through the earnest work of Dr. W. Courtney that the Association has reached the high standard we now occupy among similar associations and hospital institutions of this kind.

We regret very much that he is soon to sever his connection with the Association and desire him to know that he carries with him our very best wishes, and we hope that the relationship will continue to be as pleasant in the future as it has been in the past.

There were about seventy guests present, among whom were:

ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY

The Elks memorial services were observed at the opera house, the memorial address being delivered by Louis Nash, Past Exalted Ruler of the St. Paul lodge, No. 59.

The curtain slowly ascended and disclosed the officers of the lodge seated in a semi-circle with Mr. Nash near the Exalted Ruler, Fred L. Sanborn. The stage was beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers and on the back wall were gracefully draped four large American flags. On the altar reposed the Bible the flag and the Elks emblem.

Graham's orchestra played. After the opening ceremonies by the lodge, the opening ode was sung. Rev. G. Phil Sheridan gave prayer. Miss Elizabeth Armstrong sang "Adore and Be Still" by Gounod in pleasing voice.

"Their work is done; they have gone from among us. As spoken by brave Horatio, 'unto every man upon this earth death cometh soon or late,' it has been so since the world began. Death is merely a transition, a transformation, as it were. As the bud opens into the beautiful flower, death is simply a stepping stone to some larger form of existence, our bodies may go back to the dust whence they came, but our souls, images of, part and parcel of the divine, return to God who gave them, not to be shelved in the limbo of retirement but to continue laboring in the divine vineyard, developing the work here begun and completing the life we believed had long found end.

"This service marks our tribute to the dead, and develops within us a glooming mood. But with all of that it will fall dimly of its proper purpose if its impression is momentary and vanishes like mist the moment we reach the outer air. In a few minutes the service will be over and we shall go to our homes, and a full year will pass before a similar gathering will be held. In the meantime let us beware lest we forget, not so much our dead (memory will scarce permit that), but rather our duty to the living.

"Life's golden age is not in the past, but in the future. Sin, suffering, disappointed hopes, plans, ambitions always leave regret, but we must forget mistakes or grow melancholy.

of its expression reflects the motives which have prompted, it and furnishes in itself a characterization of the actors who have presented it upon the stage of life.

"They are forceful indices of the minor chords of humanity's heart, and serve to indicate the ever constant advance towards higher and better ideals.

"For some unaccountable reason the newspapers have fallen into the habit of referring to the annual memorial exercises as a 'lodge of sorrow.' I desire to correct that impression at this time. We do not so regard these services; it is true they are held to commemorate the virtues of our departed brothers whose labors in this world have been completed, but who we believe have been called to a better world.

"Remembering then, only the good in them, our season of mourning passed with them to their graves, and while we recognize their absence and deplore the vacant chair, our teachings do not permit us to feel depressed whenever we recall our absent brothers. This is our Decoration Day. We come laden with the wreaths of remembrance for those of our brothers who have fallen in life's battle. Memories of famous men and brilliant deeds are recalled by celebrating their anniversaries.

"We believe the man who will stand firm and true in defense of an absent friend is worthy the respect of even an enemy. Elkdome teaches the gospel of cheerfulness and good fellowship. Our religion is that of humanity, not theology, and our creed is the exemplification of charity in its broadest sense and meaning.

"We believe in brotherhood, not as a substitute for religious faith, but as a quickening, powerful influence that binds together men and nations. We believe in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, in the religion of love and the gospel of good works. That above all sects is truth, above all nations is humanity; that all the sons of men are the sons of God.

"We sympathize with human frailties and human sufferings. We believe that a smile is better than a frown, sunshine better than clouds, that laughter is the sweetest music in the world, and life without it would be a dreary waste. We believe that we rise by raising others, and he who stoops above the fallen stands erect. We believe that life is too short to harbor ill-will against our neighbors, that honest differences of opinion should not estrange the members of the human family.

"The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is an American order; American in principle, American in its hopes and aspirations; and its patriotic teachings are ideal.

"An Elk meets trouble and difficulties with a smile, and by doing so, he knows he is in a better condition to overcome them. Every person who does a charitable act, who adds to the sum total of human happiness, who inoculates others with a germ of good cheer, is an Elk who has not yet taken our obligation. All men who do good are natural Elks.

"An Elk believes in taking the world as he finds it, and does not find fault because it is not as he thinks it should be; for he realizes that even if he were running it he might make mistakes; but he ever aims to make it brighter and better.

"The only secret about Elkdome is that it shall dispense its charity without ostentation; and the thousand and one instances of its benevolence that occur every day are unknown to the outside world. It does not believe in a religion that advertises its good deeds on the billboard of publicity.

"We do not expect to wholly eliminate the trait of selfishness from human nature by our teachings and example, but we do feel the force of the adage that 'In Union There is Strength,' and that by augmenting our membership we can the better promulgate the principles of Charity, Brotherly Love and Fidelity upon which this great Order is founded.

The program as outlined followed with speeches from the following gentlemen:

Dr. R. H. Beach, The N. P. B. A.
Dr. J. P. Aylen, "The Prairie Chicken."

Dr. V. H. Stickney, "The Chief."
Dr. M. E. Withrow, "Tales from the Border."

The response by Dr. Courtney was listened to with much interest by his assembled friends, and at the close he was presented with a beautiful loving cup in token of the esteem with which he is held, the cup being appropriately engraved in memory of the occasion.
The Edwin Harris Bergh orchestra furnished the following musical program:

March, "Doctors' Delight" — Sykora Melodie, Fantasia — Massenet Selection — Edwards
Novellette — Robyn
Overture, Poet and Peasant — Suppe Selection — Frinell
March, "Brainerd Forever" — Jamieson

The following resolution, adopted by the executive committee of the Board of Managers of the N. P. B. A. at a meeting held in St. Paul October 22, 1913, was read and Dr. Courtney was presented with an engraved copy:

Resolved, That we accept the resignation of Dr. Walter Courtney, Chief Surgeon, Eastern Division, effective December 31, 1913, and wish to express, in behalf of the officers and members of the Association, their appreciation of his long and faithful service.

That when he came to the Association on September 25, 1888, the work was in its infancy, although in operation prior to that time since September, 1882, and that while the financial and numerical increase is due in a large measure to the growth of the railway, yet it is largely through the earnest work of Dr. W. Courtney that the Association has reached the high standard we now occupy among similar associations and hospital institutions of this kind.

We regret very much that he is soon to sever his connection with the Association and desire him to know that he carries with him our very best wishes, and we hope that the relationship will continue to be as pleasant in the future as it has been in the past.

M. C. Kimberly, President of the Northern Pacific Beneficial Association, St. Paul, Minn.; W. A. Laidlaw, Secretary of the Northern Pacific Beneficial Association, St. Paul, Minn.; Rev. George P. Guarding Against Croup

The best safeguard against croup is a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. P. H. Ginn, Middleton, Ga., writes: "My children are very susceptible to croup, easily catch cold. I give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and in every instance they get prompt relief and are soon cured. We keep it at home and prevent croup." H. P. Dunn.—Adv.

LONG LAKE NEWS

A surprise party was given Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs.
O. Vanasse, of Long Lake township.
Everybody had a splendid time. The evening was spent in dancing and singing. The guests were Mrs. Ludger Gorron and daughters, Cora and Gene Gorron, of Glendive, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Caron, of Brainerd, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caron, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deveau, Willie Gravel, Henry

Coughs that Prevent Sleep

These coughs are wearing and if they "hang on," can run one down physically and lower the vital resistance to disease. Mr. Bob Fergusson, 319 Pine St., Green Bay, Wis., a bad cough that kept me awake nights. Two small bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured me." H. P. Dunn.—Adv. mwf Sultans and Beards.

Mohammed never shaved, and his beard was considered sacred. His namesake, the conqueror of Constantinople, is described as having had "mustachios like leaves over two rose buds, and every hair of his beard was as a thread of gold." It was he who in reply to a question as to his plans for a campaign said, "If a hair of my beard knew them I should pluck it out." Great was the scandal when one of his successors, Selim the Grim, took to shaving. "I have cut off my beard in order that my vizier may have nothing to lead me by," he replied, and Selim's viziers knew better than to bandy jokes with him.

Adding to His Pleasure.

An angler was fishing contentedly in a stream near an asylum when one of the inmates appeared upon the scene. Sport had been poor, and the sportsman was overjoyed when at last he landed a beauty. He was gazing with pride at his catch when the visitor from the asylum asked:
"Do you sell them fish, mister?"
"Sell 'em?" responded the angler.
"No fear. I'm a sportsman, not a fishmonger. I fish for the sport of catching 'em."

"Oh, you do, eh?" remarked the visitor as he kicked the capture back into the water. "Well, now you can have some more sport catching that one again." —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The English Penny.

The English penny has had a good long inning. For over six centuries it was practically the only English coin.
For while the florin did not appear until 1343, the penny was introduced by Offa, king of Mercia, who took as a model a coin struck by the father of Charlemagne.

This penny of Offa's was a silver coin, and it was followed in 1357 by one of gold, and it was not until the time of George III. that copper pence were struck, the present bronze not coming until Victoria had been over twenty years on the throne.—London Chronicle.

Old Time Rowing Costumes.

English rowing men a century ago wore costumes far different from what they wear now. In 1805 it was the correct thing for them to wear a green leather catskin cap with a jacket and trousers of nankeen. In the first university race at Henley in 1829 Oxford wore blue checks, while Cambridge was in white, with pink waistcoats. Broad brimmed heavy straw hats came in a little later.

He Kept Count.

A famous animal trainer was talking to a reporter in New York. He said:
"The secret of animal training is gentleness. Nothing sudden or brusque must be done. An unexpected caress may anger an animal more than a kick in the ribs. Sudden, brusque, unexpected things never go, no matter how well they are meant. Once I was showing in Scotland. We trainers supper one night with a Scotch admiral.
The old man was the soul of hospitality, but I admit I was rather startled when he leaned toward me and said:
"Stick in, man Conklin, stick in. Yer frien' Coot's twa mufins aheid o' ye."
—Exchange.

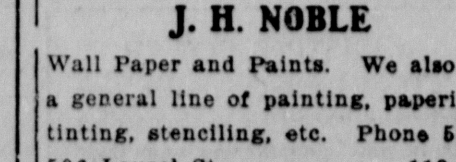

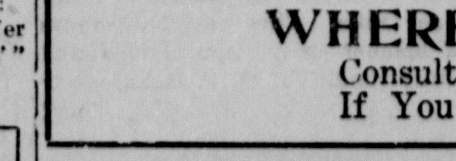

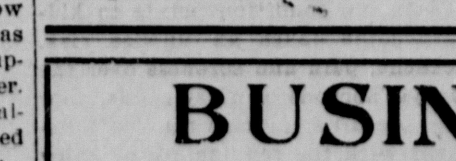

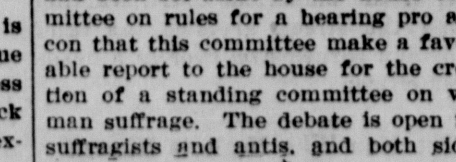

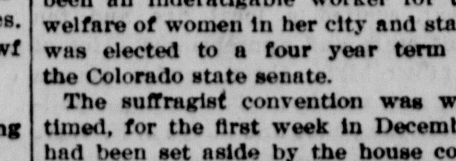

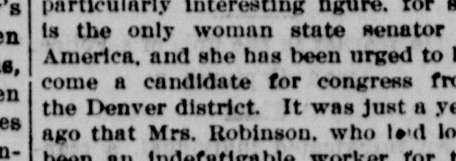

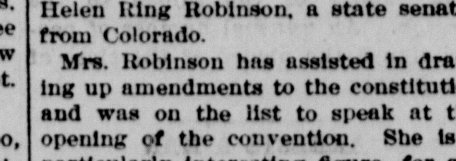

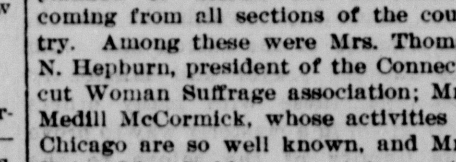

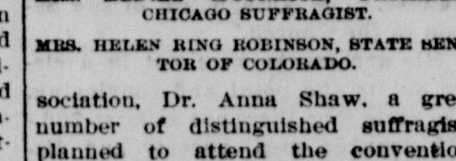

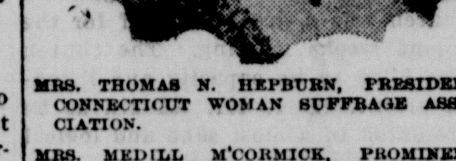

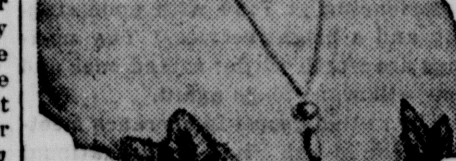

EXPAND THE SOUL.

The plowman that turns the clod may be a Cincinnatus or a Washington or he may be brother to the clod he turns. It is in every way creditable to handle the yardstick and to measure tape. The only discredit consists in having a soul whose range of thought is as short as the stick and as narrow as the tape.—Horace Mann.

Suffragist Convention at Washington Draws Great Numbers

THE convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association meeting in the new Masonic temple at Wash-ton Nov. 29-Dec. 5 is the largest and most important in the history of the association. This is the forty-fifth annual convention of the association, which is now organized in forty-two states and has 1,000 branches.

The adoption of a new constitution is an important part of the program.
This provides for a plan of work for the national body and the assumption of the financial responsibility for the support of that work by the members.
Heretofore the convention has voted on the work to be carried on by the national body, its maintenance of headquarters, presswork, publication of literature, assistance in state campaigns, etc., the smallest branches of the association cheerfully voting large burdens upon the organization and then with equal cheerfulness pledging themselves to contribute any sum to the support of the work they felt they could conveniently afford, leaving the national officers to make good a well as a budget was prepared by a committee headed by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt. Besides the president of the as-are represented by their ablest speakers and most prominent leaders. It is interesting to note in this connection that the reopening of the chamber of deputies in France brings that country face to face with the woman suffrage question. A bill granting women equal suffrage except in the election of deputies is before the chamber.

LORD COWDRAY AND MEXICO

Head of the Pearson Syndicate Denies Any Connection With Huerta.

It has been generally supposed and so reported that Lord Cowdray, head of the Pearson syndicate, operating extensive concessions in Mexico, was instrumental in securing the appointment of Sir Lionel Carden as British minister to Mexico. But this Lord Cowdray has recently denied. He also denies the assumption that he himself has been concerned in directly or indirectly helping to finance the Huerta government in Mexico, except to the extent of having participated to the amount of less than 3 per cent in a loan negotiated to the National Bank of Mexico.

Lord Cowdray further denies that the Madero administration canceled

LORD COWDRAY, WHO CONTROLS VAST INTERESTS IN MEXICO.

the concessions granted to the Pearson company by the Diaz government or that the Pearsons sought out concessions or an oil monopoly from the Huerta government or that they participated, directly or indirectly, in the overthrow of the Madero government.

Previously to being appointed minister to Mexico Sir Lionel Carden had spent over twenty years in Mexico as consul, consul general and charge d'affaires. Most of the concessions obtained by Lord Cowdray and by other British capitalists were secured largely by Sir Lionel Carden, who had great influence with the Diaz government.
The inference, therefore, was natural that Lord Cowdray had influenced Carden's appointment as minister, especially in view of the fact that Lord Murray, until recently the chief whip of the Liberal party and chief dispenser of government patronage, is a partner of Lord Cowdray. At first it appeared through some of his utterances that Sir Lionel Carden was not in sympathy with the policy of the United States in Mexico, but more recently he notified Huerta that England indorsed without reservation that policy.

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends Indigestion, Gas, Dyspepsia and Stomach Misery in five minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness of constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.—Adv.

A surprise party was given Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. O. Vanasse, of Long Lake township. Everybody had a splendid time. The evening was spent in dancing and singing. The guests were Mrs. Ludwig Gorron and daughters, Cora and Gene Gorron, of Glendive, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Caron, of Brainerd, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caron, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deveau, Willie Gravel, Henry Duval, Ed Betzold, Theophile Capistrant and Ed. Girard. Music was furnished by two violins, banjo and organ.

O. Vanasse and Paul Pepin attended the auction sale at the Rasmusson place on Monday where Mr. Vanasse bought a buckskin pony for the children.

These coughs are wearing and if they "hang on," can run one down physically and lower the vital resistance to disease. Mr. Bob Ferguson, 319 Pine St., Green Bay, Wis., writes, "I was greatly troubled with a bad cough that kept me awake nights. Two small bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured me." H. P. Dunn.—Adv. mwf Sultans and Beards.

Mohammed never shaved, and his beard was considered sacred. His namesake, the conqueror of Constantinople, is described as having had "mustachios like leaves over two rose buds, and every hair of his beard was as a thread of gold." It was he who in reply to a question as to his plans for a campaign said, "If a hair of my beard knew them I should pluck it out." Great was the scandal when one of his successors, Selim the Grim, took to shaving. "I have cut off my beard in order that my vizier may have nothing to lead me by," he replied, and Selim's viziers knew better than to bandy jokes with him.

An angler was fishing contentedly in a stream near an asylum when one of the inmates appeared upon the scene. Sport had been poor, and the sportsman was overjoyed when at last he landed a beauty. He was gazing with pride at his catch when the visitor from the asylum asked: "Do you sell them fish, mister?" "Sell 'em?" responded the angler. "No fear. I'm a sportsman, not a fishmonger. I fish for the sport of catching 'em."

Playing House.

Little Susie—Let's play housekeeping. You be the papa and I'll be the mamma. Little Harold—Aw, what's the use? We won't get started good before you'll commence crying. Little Susie—No, I won't. Just you play nice, Harold, and don't bang the table and slam the doors.—St. Louis Republic.

Young Women: Number Surprising

The number of young women who suffer with weak back, dizzy and nervous spells, dull headache and weariness is surprising. Kidney and bladder ills cause these troubles, but if Foley Kidney Pills are taken as directed relief follows promptly and the ills disappear. Contain no habit forming drugs. H. P. Dunn.—Adv. mwf

The English Penny.

The English penny has had a good long inning. For over six centuries it was practically the only English coin, for while the florin did not appear until 1343, the penny was introduced by Offa, king of Mercia, who took as a model a coin struck by the father of Charlemagne.

This penny of Offa's was a silver coin, and it was followed in 1357 by one of gold, and it was not until the time of George III. that copper pence were struck, the present bronze not coming until Victoria had been over twenty years on the throne.—London Chronicle.

Old Time Rowing Costumes.

English rowing men a century ago wore costumes far different from what they wear now. In 1805 it was the correct thing for them to wear a green leather catskin cap with a jacket and trousers of nankeen. In the first university race at Henley in 1829 Oxford won wearing blue checks, while Cambridge was in white, with pink waistcoats. Broad brimmed heavy straw hats came in a little later.

Curiosity.

Maud—Why didn't you protect yourself when Jack kissed you? Betty—Why, at first I was simply speechless, and then I thought I would just see how many times the impudent fellow would dare to do it.—Boston Transcript.

Georgetown, Texas. J. A. Kimbo, says: "For several years past Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been my household remedy for all coughs, colds and lung troubles. It has given permanent relief in a number of cases of obstinate coughs and colds." Contains no opiates. Refuse substitutes. H. P. Dunn.—Adv. mwf

A famous animal trainer was talking to a reporter in New York. He said: "The secret of animal training is gentleness. Nothing sudden or brusque must be done. An unexpected caress may anger an animal more than a kick in the ribs. Sudden, brusque, unexpected things never go, no matter how well they are meant. Once I was showing in Scotland. We trainers supped one night with a Scotch admirer. The old man was the soul of hospitality, but I admit I was rather startled when he leaned toward me and said: "Stick in, man Conklin, stick in. Yer frien' Coot's twa mufins aheid o' ye." —Exchange.

The plowman that turns the clod may be a Cincinnati or a Washington or he may be brother to the clod he turns. It is in every way creditable to handle the yardstick and to measure tape. The only discredit consists in having a soul whose range of thought is as short as the stick and as narrow as the tape.—Horace Mann.

Suffragist Convention at Washington

Draws Great Numbers

THE convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association meeting in the new Masonic temple at Washington Nov. 29-Dec. 5 is the largest and most important in the history of the association. This is the forty-fifth annual convention of the association, which is now organized in forty-two states and has 1,000 branches.

The adoption of a new constitution is an important part of the program. This provides for a plan of work for the national body and the assumption of the financial responsibility for the support of that work by the members. Heretofore the convention has voted on the work to be carried on by the national body, its maintenance of headquarters, presswork, publication of literature, assistance in state campaigns, etc., the smallest branches of the association cheerfully voting large burdens upon the organization and then with equal cheerfulness pledging themselves to contribute any sum to the support of the work they felt they could conveniently afford, leaving the national officers to make good a big deficit. The new constitution as well as a budget was prepared by a committee headed by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt. Besides the president of the association, Dr. Anna Shaw, a great number of distinguished suffragists planned to attend the convention, coming from all sections of the country. Among these were Mrs. Thomas N. Hepburn, president of the Connecticut Woman Suffrage association; Mrs. Medill McCormick, whose activities in Chicago are so well known, and Mrs. Helen King Robinson, a state senator from Colorado.

Mrs. Robinson has assisted in drawing up amendments to the constitution and was on the list to speak at the opening of the convention. She is a particularly interesting figure, for she is the only woman state senator in America, and she has been urged to become a candidate for congress from the Denver district. It was just a year ago that Mrs. Robinson, who had long been an indefatigable worker for the welfare of women in her city and state, was elected to a four year term in the Colorado state senate.

The suffragist convention was well timed, for the first week in December had been set aside by the house committee on rules for a hearing pro and con that this committee make a favorable report to the house for the creation of a standing committee on woman suffrage. The debate is open for suffragists and antis, and both sides are represented by their ablest speakers and most prominent leaders. It is interesting to note in this connection that the reopening of the chamber of deputies in France brings that country face to face with the woman suffrage question. A bill granting women equal suffrage except in the election of deputies is before the chamber.

Head of the Pearson Syndicate Denies Any Connection With Huerta.

It has been generally supposed and so reported that Lord Cowdray, head of the Pearson syndicate, operating extensive concessions in Mexico, was instrumental in securing the appointment of Sir Lionel Carden as British minister to Mexico. But this Lord Cowdray has recently denied. He also denies the assumption that he himself has been concerned in directly or indirectly helping to finance the Huerta government in Mexico, except to the extent of having participated to the amount of less than 3 per cent in a loan negotiated to the National Bank of Mexico.

Lord Cowdray further denies that the Madero administration canceled

the concessions granted to the Pearson company by the Diaz government or that the Pearsons sought oil concessions or an oil monopoly from the Huerta government or that they participated, directly or indirectly, in the overthrow of the Madero government.

Previously to being appointed minister to Mexico Sir Lionel Carden had spent over twenty years in Mexico as consul, consul general and charge d'affaires. Most of the concessions obtained by Lord Cowdray and by other British capitalists were secured largely by Sir Lionel Carden, who had great influence with the Diaz government. The inference, therefore, was natural that Lord Cowdray had influenced Carden's appointment as minister, especially in view of the fact that Lord Murray, until recently the chief whip of the Liberal party and chief dispenser of government patronage, is a partner of Lord Cowdray. At first it appeared through some of his utterances that Sir Lionel Carden was not in sympathy with the policy of the United States in Mexico, but more recently he notified Huerta that England intended without reservation that policy.

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends Indigestion, Gas, Dyspepsia and Stomach Misery in five minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness of constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.
